A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule, it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorders of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to grip. If this does not check the bowels, give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked. Its simplicity and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy are sold everywhere, and are the most successful treatment known, and may be relied upon with implicit confidence, even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by all dealers.

EL PASO COLTS

SHAKY ALREADY

DISPATCH SAYS TEAM WILL GO INTO GAME WITH BROWNS TOMORROW, WEAKENED IN SEVERAL PLACES.

The El Paso Herald, speaking of the coming games with the Browns, says:

Athletic park is being put in shape today for the game of baseball between the El Paso Colts and the Albuquerque Browns. The infield is being leveled and the outfield will be denuded of the weeds and otherwise improved.

It looks now as if the Colts were liable to go into Saturday's game a little crippled in the infield, as it may be impossible for Ingersoll to be in the game on that date, and Herr has a bad leg, which may keep him on the bench. Captain Hackett is optimistic, however, regarding the showing of the team, as he has landed two new players, who promise much in their respective positions. Whitney, a third baseman, who has seen service in the Missouri Valley league, will probably make his bow to the El Paso fans on Saturday, and Cushman, recently with the Phoenix team, may be behind the bat for the locals in both games. Both of these players have good records and should make good with the local aggregation.

Last evening at the park both Lane and Dougherty showed form that would make the heart of any fan enthusiastic, and the Colts will be strong in the box, no matter what changes are made elsewhere in the team. Forbes made a good showing in practice last evening, and with Spritz or Lane or Keating in the other outfield positions, the Colts will have the long field covered with as fast a bunch of players as ever played in El Paso. Much improvement has been made in the stock work of the team since their last game, and with any luck at all the home boys should be able to bat out a victory in at least one of the contests.

AN ECHO OF THE TAYLOR-MOORE COMPANY FAILURE.

The Roswell National bank is suing the Taylor-Moore Construction company for a portion of the $22,000 that is now in the hands of the secretary of the United States treasury, and which is due the company for work done on the Hondo reservoir before it failed a few weeks ago. The bank and loaned the company money with which to continue the work on the reservoir.

OLD CONGRESS MINE STILL A WONDER

REPORTED THAT NEW AND RICHER BODY OF ORE HAD BEEN UNCOVERED THAN THAT WHICH MADE IT FAMOUS.

The report that a large body of high grade ore had been encountered in one of the lower workings at the Congress gold mine, Arizona, is confirmed.

For many years the Congress was Arizona's greatest gold mine, but when something over 3,500 feet of depth had been reached, the ore began to show signs of leanness, and after a long hunt for richer ores the owning company concluded to stop further work below, and attention was devoted to the tailings, which were being cyanided, says the Prescott Herald.

But it was not easy to settle down to a belief that the rich ore of the Congress had "petered out," so, while no attempt was made to hoist ore, it was decided to go on a still hunt for new ore bodies.

The hunt has resulted in finding what the more optimistic of the larger stockholders of the owning company (The Development Company of America), had persistently affirmed—the existence of another ore body at no great distance from the one which had been furnishing the rich ore.

The Congress mine is located thirty miles west of Prescott, in Yavapai county, but the distance by rail is about seventy miles. It is connected with the main line of the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railway by a branch line two and one-half miles in length, from Congress Junction. The elevation is about 3,000 feet. Congress has a population, when the mine is being worked of about 1,400, one-third of whom are usually employed in or about the mine.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. C. W. Wimer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by all dealers.

THE GROSS-KELLY COMPANY ESTABLISHES NEW HOUSE.

The Las Vegas Optic says: "There will be much regret in the city that O. B. and W. B. Earlickson will leave the city next week for Erie, a new town at the junction of the Belen cut-off with the Rock Island, and the letters of which form the initials of the El Paso and Rock Island system. The Gross-Kelly company is to establish a wholesale house there and the Earlickson twins will have charge of it."

DEXTER MAN MEETS DEATH IN WATERY GRAVE.

The Roswell Register of Tuesday, says: "The little town of Dexter, seventeen miles down the valley, was shocked Sunday evening by the news that one of their most popular fellow townsmen, had found a watery grave in the Pecos river. A. S. Hutchinson, one of a party of Dexter men who had gone fishing Sunday morning, fell into a whirlpool while on the stream, and was carried out of sight in the water. His body was never seen again."

Hutchinson came to Dexter a few months ago from Galesburg, Ill. He was a carpenter and was the kind of a man who always makes friends. In the short time he had lived in Dexter he had become the friend of everybody in town. He was about 42 years old and leaves a wife and child. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge.
